

Brief summary of Day One

Yosuke Hotta

Keio University School of Medicine

The WHO Family of International Classifications (WHO-FIC)

- Normative functions

 - ICD revision

 - The standardization of health care

- Supportive functions

 - Education

 - Implementation of ICD

Information sharing and collaboration with other groups

Dr. Robert Jakob's presentation

Dr. Jakob presented ...

- More details about WHO-FIC
- Annual meeting in 2010 (Toronto)
- SWISH
- MoVE-IT
- Simplified ICD

and emphasized...

- Exploration

Asia Pacific Network Meeting (APN)

Regional implementation networks

APN is comprised of 3 main functions.

- §1. Human resource development
- §2. Information sharing
- §3. Academic activities

§0. Personal position paper

Personal position paper contains ...

- Role and mission
- Expectation toward APN
- Contribution to APN activity

All participants can confirm their own positions and responsibility each other.

→ The discussion will be more active, because it facilitates philosophy development.

§ 1. Human resource development

HIM (Health information manager)

- All countries expressed the current situations, and discussed strategies to improve them.

§2. Information sharing

Dr. Shuto requested data sharing in “Facebook” approach at the 4th meeting.

- Convenient health information system
- Online environment is not always available.
- How to build up and manage it?
(challenging)

§3. Academic activities

- to expand the range of information and improve the quality of information, ...
- Academic activities
- In the future, we have 2 types of organization: governing body and academic body.

Students' participation

- Some students have potential to be leaders in the future.
- We students sincerely would like to show our gratitude to you all.
- Suggestions from students